

Nicos Trimikliniotis

YEAR OF CALL: 1993

Nicos Trimikliniotis' practice combines all aspects of family law, particularly with regard to discrimination, immigration, asylum and EU Law. He also has an on-going commitment to human rights in Cyprus and has developed a socio-legal approach to understanding the operation of law in society as a tool for improving the lives of those in need.

Nicos' focus has been on policy advice and on producing numerous academic publications. He has also taught family law to social workers at the University of Nicosia, Cyprus.

He has recently started to practise in areas relating to children and family law.
