FAMILY LAW: CHILDREN'S LAW

The majority of Gregor's practice is in care proceedings where he represents parents, local authorities and children.

CROSS-BORDER FAMILY CASES

Gregor has experience of care proceedings involving an international element including placement outside the jurisdiction and the potential transfer of proceedings under Article 15 of Brussels II Revised.

BACKGROUND

Gregor practised from chambers in Gray's Inn for 10 years and joined Garden Court in 2016. Gregor began his legal career as a caseworker at the Refugee Legal Centre and has experience of all aspects of immigration law ever since. He sits often as a judge in the Immigration and Asylum Chamber of the First-tier Tribunal, having been appointed to the part-time position in 2007.

His academic studies led to degrees from universities in England, Canada and Scotland including an LL.M in human rights law and a further Master's degree in European Union law.
