

Katharine Marks

YEAR OF CALL: 1998

Katharine is an experienced advocate who specialises in all aspects of private and public children's law. She has excellent client care skills and is very experienced in representing vulnerable clients. She is particularly skilled at giving sympathetic yet realistic advice.

"Katharine's technical ability is very impressive and the legal insight and advice she gives to instructing solicitors and clients are invaluable."

CHAMBERS UK, 2024

"Katharine is our first choice when selecting Counsel. Aside from being an outstanding barrister, she is an incredible person to work with, with a friendly disposition."

SOLICITOR

"Katharine always assists above and beyond what is required in all the cases she is instructed on. Many of my clients have referred family and friends who wish to instruct Katharine specifically."

SOLICITOR

"Just wanted to say thank you for what you have done for us. The result is amazing. Can't thank you both enough."

LAY CLIENT

"She is very personable and her legal knowledge and advocacy skills are very good."
