BACKGROUND

After completing her BPTC, Georgie assisted in the Cabinet of Judge Christopher Vajda at the European Court of Justice, summarising pleadings, conducting comparative law research, and editing academic publications.

She has legal experience in both the public and private sector, having worked as a paralegal for the Government Legal Department and for the Immigration Team at Payne Hicks Beach. As well as producing legal research and opinions, Georgie has assisted in drafting representations and grounds for claims in asylum, judicial review, and extradition.

Georgie is a passionate lawyer linguist and has undertaken human rights volunteering in various jurisdictions, including Togo, Morocco, India, and Greece. Most recently, she provided legal support to individuals claiming asylum in Athens.
