

Ruby Selva

YEAR OF CALL: 1999

Ruby has built a fierce reputation defending serious, complex and high-profile cases, including trials involving attempted murder, violence, drugs, sexual allegations, firearms and fraud.

Ruby is known for her feisty but firm and no-nonsense approach in Court and against her opposition. She has an incredibly detailed forensic eye. Combing through unused material, cross-referencing with Statements and Exhibits, and her own research to build the foundations for effective and concise cross-examination. She leaves no stone unturned.

Her strengths are in her preparation, her tenacity in Court in legal arguments, her well-executed cross-examination (to include expert witnesses called by the Crown), persuasive and moving closing speeches.

Ruby is ranked as a Leading Junior for Crime in the Legal 500 2023.

Ruby Selva is a criminal defence barrister of 23 years call with a wealth of experience in sensitive cases.
